

The Magic Pudding miniatures order form & information

The Magic Pudding sculpture, by Louis Laumen, is a centrepiece of The Ian Potter Foundation Children's Garden at the Royal Botanic Gardens Melbourne.

A limited edition of bronze miniatures, by Louis Laumen, of this landmark sculpture are available by order.

The edition of 75 miniatures is authorised under copyright from Norman Lindsay's family.

Proceeds from the sale of these fine bronzes contribute to the Melbourne Prize Trust, which provides opportunities for sculptors, musicians and writers.

The Magic Pudding

A rare opportunity to acquire a bronze miniature of the Royal Botanic Gardens Melbourne sculpture, representing Australia's cultural heritage.

The miniatures are cast to order in solid bronze by Fundere Fine Art Foundry and mounted on jarrah bases.

Dimensions: Height 19.9cm / width 27.2cm / depth 19.1cm

Edition number allocation is made in sequence of receipt of this order form including payment.

MELBOURNE
PRIZE TRUST.

Fundere
Foundry

Order Form

Name

Address

Postcode

Telephone

Email

Date / /

How to order your miniature:

☐ Please tick to order

Please tick the box to order your limited edition miniature and fill in the above order form.

Price: $4,295 (including GST, postage and handling).

Please make your cheque payable to the Melbourne Prize Trust and mail to the following address with the order form.

Mail this order form and your payment to:

Melbourne Prize Trust
234 St Kilda Road
Southbank VIC 3005

For more information please call the Melbourne Prize Trust on (03) 9696 4410.

Visit melbourneprizetrust.org

ABN: 46 190 726 471